We Remember Them

At the rising sun and at its going down; We remember them.
At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter; We remember them.
At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring; We remember them.
At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer; We remember them.
At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of the autumn; We remember them.
At the beginning of the year and when it ends; We remember them.
As long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as
We remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength; We remember them.
When we are lost and sick at heart; We remember them.
When we have decisions that are difficult to make; We remember them.
When we have joy we crave to share; We remember them.
When we have achievements that are based on theirs; We remember them.
For as long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as,
We remember them.

Sylvan Kamens

Remembering

Once when a silence fell upon the heart,
The world at hand grew dim - almost unreal;
And wrapped in thought it seemed that I could feel
Your presence near, though we were far apart;
There was no need of any conjurer's art -
I saw your face in questioning appeal,
As if some message you would thus reveal,
Trusting I, too, would turn to memory's chart.

And in this mood the years were brushed aside -
We walked together down a woodsy hill;
We stood upon the ledge and viewed the wide
Fields where the river glided by, until
There was no other world ... our spirits met
Briefly to say that neither would forget.

Margaret E. Bruner

Yizkor – Remember

Loss is misunderstood by many. The misconception is that death is the final break or separation with the departed. Though it is true, that we never physically see our departed again in life, they rarely disappear from our consciousness. Rather, our departed fill our lives in deep and complex ways. We become filled with their memory. Memory is not merely a neurological function.

Our memory is the imprint our departed have made on our souls. To have been touched by loved ones is to have been transformed. Yizkor is a space for quiet reflection.

It is our opportunity to acknowledge the impact our departed have made on our lives.

May their names be for a blessing, and may our memories of them at their best, guide us always.

In memory of 6 million Jews who gave their lives unwillingly. We shall not let their memories fade as we teach future generations the lessons of the Holocaust.

I walked a mile with Pleasure
She chattered all the way
But left me none the wiser
For all she had to say.

I walked a mile with Sorrow
And er'er a word said she
But oh the things I learned from her
When Sorrow walked with me.

Robert Browning Hamilton

MEMORIAL PRAYER FOR A DEPARTED FATHER

Your passing, dear father has left a void in my life, which can never be filled. How can I ever forget the sacrifices you so willingly made so that I could prosper? The recollection of your joy in my achievements, your comforting words and gestures, which strengthened me in every setback, is indelibly inscribed upon my soul. These sacred memories will inspire me to live according to ideals you treasured.

MEMORIAL PRAYER FOR A DEPARTED MOTHER

Dearest mother, whatever I am today I owe to you. What would I be without your tender care, without your love and devotion in my every hour of need? No effort on my behalf was too great for you. You stirred at my every cry; you suffered even my smallest pain with me; your influence ennobled my life and molded my personality. May your example be my guide. Your love is ever with me.

MEMORIAL PRAYER FOR A DEPARTED SPOUSE

My darling, with a heart filled to overflowing, I recall our precious hours together. Your tenderness and devoted concern, the strength you were to me in sorrow, the inspiration in all I did, made life together full and meaningful. Though death has parted us, the bonds we made in the presence of God can never be dissolved. May your sacred memory make me a better person. I shall never forget you. May the Merciful One bless and keep you, until we are reunited.

MEMORIAL PRAYER FOR A DEPARTED CHILD

My darling child, the blessed memories you have left me ever sustain me. I can never forget the joy and happiness it gave me to tend to your every spiritual and physical need. Every minute was sacred, every hour was precious. I thank God for having entrusted your beautiful soul, although too briefly, to my care. I pray that I was faithful to that trust. Your life was a blessing; your memory is an inspiration. May God guard and keep you for me.

MEMORIAL PRAYER FOR A DEPARTED SIBLING

My dear sibling, you have been called to your eternal rest, but the passage of time can never erase the precious memories of companionship we had together. Thank you for your warmth and friendship, for your patience and understanding. If I ever upset you by word or gesture, please forgive me. The memory of our close bonds of fellowship ever sustains me. May it continue to inspire me in my relationships with others.

They are not dead who live
In hearts they leave behind.
In those whom they have blessed
They live a life again,
And shall live through the years
Eternal life, and grow
Each day more beautiful
As time declares their good,
Forgets the rest, and proves
Their immortality.

Footprints in the Sand

One night I dreamed a dream.
As I was walking along the beach with my Lord.
Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life.
For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand,
One belonging to me and one to my Lord.

After the last scene of my life flashed before me,
I looked back at the footprints in the sand.
I noticed that at many times along the path of my life,
especially at the very lowest and saddest times,
there was only one set of footprints.

This really troubled me, so I asked the Lord about it.
"Lord, you said once I decided to follow you,
You'd walk with me all the way.
But I noticed that during the saddest and most troublesome times of my life,
there was only one set of footprints.
I don't understand why, when I needed You the most, You would leave me."

He whispered, "My precious child, I love you and will never leave you
Never, ever, during your trials and testings.
When you saw only one set of footprints,
It was then that I carried you."

The Dash

I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of a friend. He referred to the dates on her casket from beginning to the end. He noted that first came the date of her birth and spoke of the following date with tears, but he said what mattered most of all was the dash between those years. For that dash represents all the time that she spent alive on earth and now only those who loved her know what that little line is worth.

For it matters not, how much we own, the cars, the house, the cash,
What matters is how we live and love and how we spend our dash.
So think about this long and hard; Are there things you would like to change?
For you never know how much time is left that can still be rearranged.
If we could just slow down enough to consider what is true and real and always try to understand the way other people feel.
And be less quick to anger and show appreciation more and love the people in our lives like we have never loved before.
If we treat each other with respect and more often wear a smile,
Remembering that this special dash might only last a little while.
So when your eulogy is being read with your life's actions to rehash...
Would you be proud of the things they say about how you spent your dash?
